FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FORMER POSTAL EMPLOYEE INDICTED FOR STEALING MAIL

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – Todd P. Graves, United States Attorney for the Western District of Missouri, announced that a former employee of the U.S. Postal Service was indicted by a federal grand jury today for stealing mail.

Frank Campos, Jr., 49, of Smithville, Mo., was charged by a grand jury in Kansas City with embezzling a greeting card addressed to someone else on Jan. 29, 2004. Campos was employed by the Postal Service as a distribution clerk at the Kansas City Processing and Distribution Center, where the alleged offense occurred.

Graves cautioned that the charge contained in the indictment is simply an accusation, and not evidence of guilt. Evidence supporting the charge must be presented to a federal trial jury, whose duty is to determine guilt or innocence.

This case is being prosecuted by Assistant U.S. Attorney William L. Meiners. It was investigated by the U.S. Postal Inspection Service.
